AROUND THE TOWN

R. B. Martin of Banff was a visitor in town this week.

Miss Aggie Haldane of Olds spent last Sunday here with Miss Maye McArthur.

J. V. Berscht and E. Lindquist took in the Horse Show at Calgary on Wednesday last.

M. Ryckman and H. E. Osmond were visitors at Calgary over the week end.

L. C. Coffey, E. G. Grant, J. McGhee and W. Moon were all visitors at Calgary on Saturday and Sunday.

Wilfred Milton, brother of Rev. J. Milton, and T. Petherbridge, both of Devonshire, Eng., arrived here on Monday.

R. F. Miller, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Slek, and Miss Pearl Miller were visiting here on Monday from Wetaskiwin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dunham of the C. F. Lowe Co., Calgary, are visiting with Messrs. Jim and Parker Reed.

Drs. Piper & Sandcock announce that they will not be in their office here the following week owing to poor health.

Mr. Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank, returned from his trip east with Mrs. Davidson last week.

S. Reiber & Co. wish to state that their undertaking business is conducted along the same lines as formerly when Messrs. Durrer & Brusco conducted the business and every accommodation will be given for those wishing to use their undertaking parlors.

H. C. Forrest, manager of the Golden West hotel, is having considerable improvements made in the house and has also had the outside painted and extra lights put on the front of the hotel, which gives it a very clean and bright appearance.

This is the time to get after the cleaning up of your back yards and laneways before the flies begin to congregate and make merry with the housewife. It will save you a lot of fly swatting if you go after the cleaning up now.

The majority of people will be mighty glad that the election is about over, all but the shouting. It will be, "I told you so," which ever party succeeds in winning the battle, and the glad hand and winning smile with which you have been greeted lately will be relegated to the cold storage for safe keeping until the next time they are wanted.

PATIENTS WANT RADIUM

London Hospitals Appeal to Nation for Money to Secure Supply

London, England.—A week ago it was announced that 500 milligrammes of radium were lying in a safe at the British Radium Corporation offices, while five London hospitals were making pitiful appeals for more adequate supplies. To quote Doctor Lazarus-Barlow, of the Middlesex Hospital, cancer laboratories, the huge majority of our unfortunate patients have to die simply because we have not the radium which would at least relieve their pain, and might in all probability effect a cure in a good proportion of the cases.

The 500 milligrammes will soon be 800 milligrammes, the corporation expecting an additional 300, and there is a grave danger that the whole quantity may be sold to Japan and scores of men and women suffering from the horrors of cancer will be left to die in London.

There is only a very limited quantity of radium in the whole world, but happily it can be used again and again. As Doctor Lazarus-Barlow stated, more than a thousand years pass before its powers fall 50 per cent.

It is therefore evident that if these 800 milligrammes are purchased for the London hospitals, the beneficent work will go on for many years and even many generations to come, and the philanthropist who secured the radium would be earning for himself the grateful blessings of thousands of his less fortunate brethren.

It is estimated that $64,000 is required to buy the whole supply. When it is remembered how much anguish can be relieved and how much despair can be changed to hope, this is surely a small enough sum.

At the Middlesex Hospital, the London Hospital, the Cancer Hospital, the Metropolitan Hospital and St. John's Hospital for Diseases of the Skin physicians are forced to stand idly by and watch the ravages of disease which at least they could stay if this radium were taken from the office safe and divided among them.

The hospitals cannot buy it themselves. They have not the money. Who will help? The necessity is urgent. There must be many rich men and women whose sympathies will be touched and whose check books will be opened.

Muscular Rheumatism Subdued.—When one is a sufferer from muscular rheumatism he cannot do better than to have the region rubbed with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. There is no oil that so speedily shows its effect in subduing pain. Let the rubbing be brisk and continue until ease is secured. There is more virtue in a bottle of it than can be fully estimated.

Suspended Animation.

I was walking down a street once, said the hypnotist, when I saw a man just in front with whom I wished to speak. So I just straightened out my arm, concentrated my will, made a pass—thus—and the man stopped instantly, and waited till I overtook him.

Well, you don't call that much of a trick, do you? said one of his listeners. Personally I call it a very fair demonstration, affirmed the hypnotist. But perhaps you are not familiar with the science?

No, I can't say I am, replied the other, who happened to be an American, though one day while I was walking in New York I saw a man slip, and fall from the top of a sixteen storey building. When he had got about half way down, I made a pass just as you did, and he stopped falling instantly. However, being busy at the time I went on without thinking any more about it; which reminds me—next time you're in New York, you might look out for him and rescue him!

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is too great to be paid for by the temporary relief from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. C. P. R. Empress on Initial Trip Around the World

One of the latest additions to the magnificent fleet of steamships of the C. P. R. has commenced its first trip, starting out from Liverpool for an around the world tour. The new vessel is the much talked of Empress of Russia which will be a valuable addition to the already fine fleet of steamers now plying between Vancouver and the Orient. It was a unique idea to inaugurate this around the world trip on the initial voyage of the floating palace, instead of sending the vessel by way of Cape Horn, and needless to say the results justified the enterprise as when the Empress left the docks at Liverpool it was with a full complement of passengers, and thousands crowded the docks to bid them bon voyage. Included in the passenger list are many Canadians who left these shores a few weeks ago to be at Liverpool in time for the sailing of the Empress of Russia. The Empress of Asia follows a little later. Beyond all question the most notable merchant steamers built in the United Kingdom during the past year were the two which the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering Company constructed for the C. P. R. company's trans-pacific service, which have received the titles of the Empress of Russia and the Empress of Asia. Though outwardly the vessels are identical in appearance there is a difference in the interior work, the Empress of Russia being decorated in the French style, mainly Louis Quinze and Louis Seize, while the Empress of Asia will be representative of the English style of the Georgian period, which is particularly effective on board ship. The leading dimensions are: length 590 feet, breadth 68 feet, the depth 46 feet, the gross tonnage being in the neighborhood of 15,000. A feature which catches the eye of the man who has but a casual acquaintance with ships, is the cruiser stern, which gives a distinctly naval touch, besides conveying the idea that a fast turn of speed can be attained. In point of fact the speed will be 18 knots per hour. Accommodation has been provided for 1100 passengers in all—200 first, 100 second and 800 third class, and as the officers and crew will number 470, the total complement will be 1570. Elaborate precautions have been taken to secure the safety of all, and should any accident occur there would be little chance of the ship sinking, the vessel being provided with double the number of watertight compartments called for by the Board of Trade.

Coming to the general design, the vessels have orlop, lower, main, upper and shelter decks while above the latter is a long combined fore-castle and bridge, the bridge deck being extended from stern to side stanchions. Above again there is a promenade deck 359 feet long. Here are situated the many first class rooms, including the lounge, a particularly fine room 48 feet long and 36 feet wide with a height in the centre of 14 feet. There are also writing rooms, smoking room, and veranda cafe. The vessels are fitted up in the most luxurious style and the dining room is a new departure—the tables being arranged for two and four persons while in quiet alcoves there are tables for a party of six. There is also a well equipped gymnasium and up-to-date laundry, while the kitchen and serving rooms are all that can be desired. The vessel is fitted with powerful engines and a long range Marconi system of telegraphing in addition to semaphore signalling from the bridge. The Empress of Russia is scheduled to arrive in Vancouver on June 7.

Prussian Municipalities Find Difficulty in Placing Loans for War Fund

Berlin, Germany.—The semi-official Cologne Gazette states that, amid the conflicting assertions and emotions of the hour, only one thing can be affirmed with certainty—that the imperial chancellor, Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg, finds himself both from the financial and political standpoints in an extremely unenviable position, with regard to the $250,000,000 army increase.

It is now known that wide differences of opinion exist among the members of the federal council of the empire as to ways and means for financing the recurring cost of the army increase, which will be $50,000,000 a year.

The federal states of central Germany are leading the opposition to the proposals in Prussia. A military news agency, which has been well informed on all the developments of the army increase and the war tax, asserts that the king of Saxony has organized his non-Prussian fellow sovereigns against the north German tax projects. The same agency claims to know that the taxes on property will partly take the form of fresh stamp taxes. Articles of luxury will be specially affected, and stock exchange transactions assessed in one way or another.

The banks have now to find $50,000,000 for the undersubscribed half of the new Prussian loan. The German municipalities, which are also borrowing heavily, are finding the greatest difficulty in placing loans. The Berliner Neueste Nachrichten says it would be timely to make a fervent appeal even to the women of Germany to keep their money at home, and not to yield to the tempting offers of Paris dressmakers and milliners, who carry on an active campaign for German trade at this season of the year. The newspapers are overwhelmed with letters from the public protesting against the hardships which will be imposed on them by the war taxes.

Women's Organizations Enter Heartily into the Scheme

Berlin.—Women's organizations in Germany are taking an enthusiastic interest in the scheme to supply the army with thousands of volunteer nurses for emergency service.

Facilities are now to be provided for enabling women of all classes to become nurses. Only those will be accepted who are ready to undergo six weeks' training, which will be given free of charge. Applicants to join the nursing volunteer corps must supply their own equipment and pledge themselves to respond to the call of the war office.

FANATIC FOLLOWERS GO MAD

Russian Peasants Who Believe That Christ Lived in Russia, Not Palestine

St. Petersburg, Russia.—An Archangel correspondent sends a moving description of the sufferings of the Moldavian peasants who in mid-winter followed the fanatical monk Innocentius over 1000 miles from the Podolia government to the Muromsky monastery, on the Onega river, where he was banished.

Ragged, starving and frost-bitten, death threatened them all on the snowy wastes where the Archangel authorities sent a force of rural guards to stop their march and arrest their leader and telegraphed to the Red Cross Society, urgently asking for medical aid. Some of the pilgrims had money in comparative plenty, for before starting northwards they had sold their belongings, but it was of no avail to them in the frozen wilderness.

Their number was underestimated in the first account. It was well over 1000, including a great proportion of women and children. They were sent back to their homes by train in war-rigged vans. The correspondent witnessed the departure of one party from the station of Niandoma. Frost-bitten cheeks, ears, fingers and toes were the rule rather than the exception. Nearly all the pilgrims were begrimed with dirt. Many women and children were in hysterics. The occupants of one van were squatted on the floor praying with open Bibles before them.

The correspondent questioned the pilgrims as to the hold which Innocentius had over them. Incredible as it may sound in the twentieth century, in a civilized country, the following is the gist of the replies he received:

The followers of Innocentius knew that Jesus Christ had appeared in the Onega region and not in Palestine. He was seized there, but was taken elsewhere for crucifixion. Alpha and Omega in the Revelation of St. John designated our Lord and Innocentius (Reference has been made in telegrams to the confusion of the peasants between Omega and Onega). Otherwise why was there housing room for 1000 persons in the Muromsky monastery when the monks only numbered 100? This was the work of the Lord. They had been shown a picture of Innocentius portrayed as Jesus Christ with a nimbus encircling his head and a cross and chalice in his hands.

The arrest of Innocentius only served to confirm their belief in his divinity, and they recounted how, when the rural guards came to arrest him, and one of the guards tried to fire a blank cartridge in order to intimidate them, his rifle had misfired three times.

A similar miracle had occurred previously at Balta, in Podolia, when an ispravnik (police officer) insulted Innocentius and advanced towards him threateningly. Innocentius looked straight into his eyes, and said quietly: Neither thy hand nor thy foot shall stir, and the ispravnik stopped dead, as though paralyzed.

On being confronted by the rural guards the pilgrims gathered round Innocentius, and had to be dragged away before the monk could be arrested. The vice governor of Archangel approached Innocentius: Where are you going? he asked him. I am going to seek the new Zion, was the answer, and the crowd of pilgrims repeated in song: We are going to seek the new Zion.

Innocentius' followers to the far north included his mother and five sisters. When he was at Balta, he attracted thousands of pilgrims to the local monastery by the power with which he was credited of casting out devils. There is an appalling amount of lunacy in that part of Russia, generally ascribed to the peasantry eating a paste of unripe maize instead of leavened bread.

The Balta district became an absolute inferno of the mad, numbers of whom were brought there in bonds. This seems to have been the principal reason of Innocentius' banishment. Several impartial investigators maintain that there was nothing immoral in his teaching or his life.

GERMAN ROYAL WEDDING

Prince May be Asked to Renounce English Title

Berlin.—The Rhenish Westphalian Gazette, Essen, one of the leading organs of the German armor-plate press, expresses the wish that Prince Ernest, heir of the duke of Cumberland, who is engaged to the Kaiser's daughter, may be induced to renounce his British title of prince before his marriage.

Owing to the death of King George of Greece, brother of the duchess of Cumberland, the royal wedding, according to the Tageblatt, will be as simple as possible, and only the immediate relatives of the two families will be present. The duke of Cumberland's visit to Potsdam is postponed until after the king's funeral.

Airmen Taken for Spies

Berlin.—Two airmen, on alighting at Neupfalz, Germany, though wearing the uniforms of officers of the German Uhlans, were taken for foreign spies and chased by a hostile crowd to the police station where their identity was subsequently established.

Isn't his life insured?

Yes. Then what does his wife worry so about it for?

She says she thinks it will be a perfect shame if his second wife gets all that money.

ARM-IN-ARM WALKING BANNED

Father Taking His Daughter to School One Exception to Rule

Paris, France.—The old-fashioned habit of a man and a woman walking arm-in-arm in public has long gone out of fashion, says the Paris Excelsior.

In its columns a discussion on the subject is taking place, especially on the point: Should the woman place her arm within that of the man, or should he take hers?

The spectacle of people walking arm-in-arm is, says the Excelsior, beginning to become quite sensational—unless they are a father taking his daughter to school. Whereas in former days the lady timidly placed her hand within the arm of her cavalier, lightly resting on his sleeve, the up-to-date couple walk coldly aloof, the man with both hands behind his back, the woman with both hers in her muff.

There is a time when self-respecting people may permit the selves to walk arm-in-arm. It is when they are on holiday, in the country, in hours of peaceful reverie, when all things in nature seem to hold hands. It is an attitude which demands a certain intimacy, a gentleness of gait and contemplativeness of mien.

No, decidedly, says the Parisian, let us not bring back this arm-in-arm fashion to Paris. The picture is drawn of a young man of a type which is seen frequently in the streets, who takes a girl's arm with a sort of jutsu grip, grasping her hand and wrist, holding her elbow as in a vice and by the leverage of his arm forcing her to walk with one shoulder hunched up and the other lowered. The object appears to be that the man may propel his companion, much as a policeman might propel a recalcitrant offender to the police station.

This is clearly not to be compared for gracefulness with the fashion of a generation ago, when the lady hung lightly on the arm of a strong and dashing escort.

A man likes the statement that he has risen to the top of the ladder. A woman resents the intimation that she wasn't always there.

St. Paul Park Incident

"After drinking coffee for breakfast I always felt languid and dull, having no ambition to get to my morning duties. Then in about an hour or so a weak, nervous derangement of the heart and stomach would come over me with such force I would frequently have to lie down."

Tea is just as harmful, because it contains caffeine, the same drug found in coffee.

"At other times I had severe headaches; stomach finally became affected and digestion so impaired that I had serious chronic dyspepsia and constipation. A lady, for many years State President of the W.C.T.U., told me she had been greatly benefited by quitting coffee and using Postum; she was troubled for years with asthma. She said it was no cross to quit coffee when she found she could have as delicious an article as Postum.

"Another lady, who had been troubled with chronic dyspepsia for years, found immediate relief on ceasing coffee and using Postum. Still another friend told me that Postum was a God-send, her heart trouble having been relieved after leaving off coffee and taking on Postum.

"So many such cases came to my notice that I concluded coffee was the cause of my trouble and I quit and took up Postum. I am more than pleased to say that my days of trouble have disappeared. I am well and happy."

THE HUMAN PRESIDENT

WOODROW WILSON BREAKS AWAY FROM CUSTOM

The First American Executive for More than a Century to Appear Before Houses of Congress—Received an Ovation, and His Appearance Aroused Tense Interest.

Washington.—President Woodrow Wilson bridged the gap that for over a century has separated the pilot of public business and the executive and legislative branches of the two governments of the United States.

Not as a cog in a machine, not as an impersonal political entity, nor as a mere department of government, but as the human president, he went to congress to speak about the tariff. Standing before the Senate and House of Representatives in joint session, as no other president had one for more than a hundred and twelve years, President Wilson stated simply and tersely what he thought should be done for the welfare of the country, and asked his legislative colleagues, man to man, to aid in keeping the pledges of their party.

With a sweep of decision that shattered precedent, the President brushed aside all imaginary boundaries between congress and the executive office, and rescued himself as he expressed it, from that isolated island of jealous authority which the presidency had come to be regarded.

Congress had prepared for a ceremony of unusual importance, and such it was; yet when President Wilson arrived in the midst of the great assemblage, riding through throngs of cheering people in the streets, and later looking up into galleries crowded with privileged ticket-holders, he seemed after all, what he said he was, a human being trying to co-operate with other human beings in a common service.

When the much-heralded incident was over, Congress seemed pleased and the President was delighted. He expressed himself to friends as impressed with the dignity of the occasion, and some of his confidants later said that he left the Capitol greatly relieved, to think that, after all, his precedent-smashing had not been such a cataclysm as older heads had predicted.

The President's visit to the Capitol was brief, lasting about a quarter of an hour. No one except a secret service man accompanied him. He rode in a White House automobile and was driven through the crowds assembled about the House wing of the Capitol.

From the floor and galleries distinguished guests looked on at the scene. Ambassadors from many lands were in the audience, members of the cabinet were there, and all the people who possibly could get in were present to witness the proceedings.

The president, escorted by Senator Bacon, bowed acknowledgement to the applause, and mounted the Speaker's stand to the journal clerk's desk, directly in front of the Speaker.

With a smile, as he began to speak, the president told his hearers why he had come. He said he was glad to verify for himself the impression that the president of the United States was a person. He was speaking in an ordinary tone of voice, just as though he were talking to a Senator in his office. The crowded chamber was hushed after the momentary thrills of conversation upon his entrance had ebbed away. Every eye was fixed upon him as he spoke, and it was instantly apparent that he aroused the keenest interest.

As the president proceeded with his preliminary statement, averring that he was not a mere department of government, but human, and that he had come to speak naturally with his fellowmen, the interest was tense.

After this pleasant experience the president declared, I shall feel quite normal in all our dealings with one another.

As these words fell from his lips, the House and Senate applauded. Then the gallery joined in. Mrs. Wilson, the President's daughter and other relatives, were in the gallery. Ambassador Bryce, of England, looked on with evident interest. So did Ambassador Jusserand, of France, and the representatives from other nations.

Where a few moments before the event had seemed unusual, almost unreal, it now appeared perfectly adjusted to conditions, and not at all dramatic. The applause subsiding, the president began to read his brief message on the tariff. He spoke slowly and forcefully, and in less than eight minutes he was done. No interruption occurred and he left the stand immediately, while Congress applauded.

ANTARCTIC EXPLORATION

Mawson Expedition Expedition Engaged on Research Work

Sydney, N.S.W.—That the Antarctic continent lies much farther south than Explorer Wilkes mapped out during his expedition to the Antarctic has been clearly proven by the members of Dr. Mawson's party. A wireless message received from Mawson indicates that the members of his party are busily engaged in systematic research during their enforced stay among the ice and snow of the Polar regions. According to the commander, the land falls which Wilkes charted eastward of Adelle Land do not exist, and the continent itself clearly lies in a more southerly direction than that established by Wilkes. Dr. Mawson maintains that the first actual land in the Antarctic is Adelle Land.

FOR WARS OF THE FUTURE

German Physician Advocates the Use of Crematories on Automobiles to Care for the Dead

Berlin.—A suggestion for the wars of the future is made by a leading physician in the Milltär Wochenblatt, advocating the use of crematories on automobiles which would follow the army along with the regular army wagons.

The writer argues that in the future wars the bodies of the dead will be the greatest cause of sickness among the troops as well as the civil population, while the burying of the dead will greatly hinder the movement of an army.

The writer says that at the end of the Franco-Prussian war of 1870, the German police found around Metz 20,000 bodies insufficiently covered with earth. In the single canton of Gorz 14,000 bodies were thus found. In many of the villages the water in the wells was so infected that it could not be drunk, while the percentage of mortality greatly increased.

CLASSED AS NEGROES

Japanese Resentment of California's Proposed Legislation

Tokio.—The hollowness of American advocacy of equality is the subject of an ironical editorial in the Asahi, the leading independent newspaper of Japan, which says that Californians propose to treat their neighbors across the Pacific worse than negroes.

The article continues: This anti-Japanese agitation will impress us with a keen sense of humiliation, which will require many years to efface. Americans must be prepared for a cool reception when they visit or settle in Japan.

The paper says that in the event of the passage and signature of the bill, Japan must immediately withdraw her support from the Pacific exposition and deny to Americans the right to ownership in Japan.

HALIFAX AIRSHIP FACTORY

Enquiries Have Been Made by Capitalists With View to Building Different Types

Halifax, N.S.—There is a prospect that Halifax may have an airship plant within the near future. The recent speech of Winston Churchill in regard to England requiring aerial craft has made it plain that England has entered the field. It is understood inquiries have been quietly made here by capitalists as to the feasibility of establishing a station at Halifax for the purpose of constructing airships of the rigid, semi-rigid and non-rigid types. It is also hinted that attention will be given to the development of aeroplanes.

Conclusion of Peace Still Distant

Cologne.—The answer of the European powers to the note presented by the Balkans, regarding the terms of mediation proposed on March 24 by the powers will be of such a nature according to an inspired telegram to the Cologne Gazette from Berlin, as to obliterate the conclusion of peace between the allies and Turkey.

The great powers, the dispatch says, have agreed upon the necessity of extending their naval blockade of the Montenegrin coast down to the mouth of the river Drin, in Albania, to prevent the landing of reinforcements or munitions of war at San Giovanni Di Medua.

Montenegro's Conviction

We hold the profound conviction that our case is just before God and man. Scutaro was the ancient seat of our kings, and it is indispensable to our national and economic development. Only brute force of numbers can compel us to give up this territory.

B.C. Government Buys Indian Lands

Vancouver, B.C.—The Kitjano Indian reserves, which consists of 80 acres, and lies at the entrance to False Creek in the centre of Vancouver, was taken over by the provincial government. Twenty Indians disposed of their rights for $11,000 dollars each. The land is worth five million dollars and will be used for some public purpose.

Smallpox Threatens Ohio Refugees

Cairo, Ill.—That smallpox is breaking out among the refugees in the hills and adding to their sufferings was the report brought back by Adjutant General Frank Dickson, of Illinois, who returned from a 48 hour trip on the Ohio river.

Referring to conditions at Shawneetown, General Dickson said the situation was desperate, not only on account of the high water, but of a smallpox epidemic threatening refugee camps back on the hills.

British Paper to Demonstrate

Calgary.—Reynold's Newspaper, a London publication has purchased a tract of land near Castor, Alberta, on which it is proposed to establish a demonstration farm.

Sydney, N.S.W.—Efforts are being made in the tariff to secure the abolition of the differential duty against Australian meat as compared with Argentine meat.

PLIGHT OF THE TURKS

CHOLERA SCOURGES TURKISH TROOPS IN ADRIANOPLE

Death is Claiming Hundreds of Victims in the Concentration Camps.—Terrible Stories of Sufferings From the Stricken City.

London.—Hundreds of Turkish soldiers who survived the siege of Adrianople are dying of exhaustion, dysentery and cholera in the concentration camp outside the city, according to the correspondent of The Daily Telegraph.

The battle having ceased, says the correspondent, death continues its work, and is cruelly piling up corpses. The guns began and the cholera, dysentery and hunger—the rearguard of war—are prolonging the massacre.

The despatch adds:—When the Turkish commander caused the destruction of the provisions remaining in the garrison and blew up the bridge across the Arda, thus cutting the road for supply trains he did not think that he was condemning to death the weakest, the most helpless, the most exhausted part of his army.

The Bulgarians distributed some bread, but are unable to do more until the bridge has been repaired. A few days after the capitulation the cholera broke out among the prisoners and spread in a threatening manner to the Bulgarian soldiers.

The Bulgarians removed to Tchatalja; healthy prisoners were sent away in swarms; doctors were summoned, but in the primitive camp still remain thousands of men who fall day by day under the invisible heel of death.

The camp presents a monstrous promiscuity of living, dying and dead. The soldiers belonging to Adrianople, says the correspondent, are provided with food by their families, but others wrapped in rags and huddled in wretched destitute, demand water, which although muddy they drink greedily.

This is a crowd of men who have suffered too much, says the correspondent, who can march no more, whom nothing can save whom death has seized while they are still living. At one end of the encampment a line of bear carriers passes and repasses, bearing corpses from the field of horror to the other side of the bridge, where the healthy prisoners are digging enormous trenches. There are tents which should be hospitals, but the men go there to die. It is a monstrous morgue; the ground all around is covered with corpses, hundreds of human forms in horrible disorder of dying and dead.

DID NOT LEARN MUCH

Berlin.—German army officers who were on board the Zeppelin air cruiser Ziv when she was captured by the French officers after crossing the French frontier and landing at Lunville, are of the opinion that the Frenchmen did not discover any of the secret workings of the air craft.

The German officers, in their report, say that although General Herschauer, inspector of the French aviation department, and experts boarded the dirigible, they think the Frenchmen did not observe enough to enable them to reproduce the intricate mechanism of the airship. Some of the Zeppelin crew say they heard shots fired at the dirigible but this is not confirmed by other persons on board.

In Atlantic Graveyard

New York.—Icebergs again, are adrift in the northern Atlantic near the ill-fated Titanic, which went to the bottom nearly a year ago. The steamship Koonland, which arrived from Antwerp reported that she had received wireless information that the steamship Russia had sighted ice last week in latitude 42.50, longitude 49. The Titanic struck a berg on April 15 last in latitude 41.16, longitude 50.14. The revenue cutter Seneca left New York last week to patrol the paths of the trans-Atlantic travel off the Grand Banks and warn ships of this danger to navigation.

Fur-Bearing Animal Bill

Toronto.—A bill designed to encourage the breeding of fur animals, was before the Fish and Game committee at the Legislature. Dr. Reame, Minister of Public Works, said the bill was designed to facilitate the breeding of fur-bearing animals, an industry for which there was an assured future. He thought there should be provision that anyone securing, selling or purchasing animals must have a permit from the department. The bill will be re-drafted and reported with amendments.

Three Thousand Scotsmen Left Clyde for Canada

London.—Considerably over 3,000 Scotsmen left the Clyde for Canada, the majority proceeding to friends already established in the Dominion. The average weekly exodus from Scotland since the early weeks of the year have been 2,000, despite the fact that there are less unemployed in Scotland now than for years past.

Queensland Railways Cost

Sydney, N.S.W.—In taking evidence at Brisbane the Dominion Trades Commission made minute enquiries in connection with the Queensland railways and ascertained that the capital spent in opening lines to date totalled $145,000,000.

RUSH TO PEACE RIVER

Navigation Opens in Two Weeks—Hundreds of Settlers Waiting at the Landing

Athabasca Landing, Alta.—R. Creelman, general passenger agent of the Canadian Northern railway, and William Stapleton, district passenger agent of the Canadian Northern railway were in Athabasca Landing to arrange for the interchange of traffic with the steamboat lines operating on the Peace River country. Navigation is expected to open within the next couple of weeks. Already there are several hundred people and many thousands of tons of freight waiting the steamers of the Northern Transportation company and the Hudson Bay lines, while settlers are flocking in by every train.

The Canadian Northern Railway proposes improving their passenger service, and the handling facilities of the freight and settlers' effects, to provide for the influx of landseekers expected to take up the 30,000 homesteads already thrown open for settlement by the Dominion government, in order to care for this immense traffic.

Athabasca Landing is providing additional hotel accommodation, and the Dominion government is erecting a large immigration hall to shelter the travellers during their short wait-over in the Gateway City.

The Hudson Bay Steamboat company will offer a summer tour down the Athabasca and the Mackenzie rivers to the Arctic circle, occupying ten weeks, far into the land of the Midnight Sun.

This trip will provide every comfort and it is the first opportunity ever presented to visit the remote interior of the storied north under modern conditions of comfort. It is expected that the new service of the Canadian Northern railway will make direct connection with the steamer transportation lines.

ENGLISH BIRDS FOR MICHIGAN

Consignment of 600 Coming to Join Henry Ford's Aviary

Housed in a special tent erection on deck and accompanied by an attendant to supply their wants about 600 British song birds will travel to a new home in Michigan to take their places in a great aviary owned by Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer. The aviary consists of about ten acres of land inclosed and covered with netting and said to be the largest in the world, since in it birds are able to fly about with almost the same freedom as in their native woods.

The consignment includes 120 larks, 120 linnets, 70 chaffinches, 100 greenfinches, 20 yellowhammers, 12 bullfinches, 40 blackbirds, 12 jays, 24 red polls and 20 twites.

THINKS HE WILL RETURN

Former King of Portugal Has Issued a New Manifesto

Lisbon.—Former King Manuel of Portugal declares:

I foresee that I shall soon return to the throne of Portugal. In an interview published recently in the newspaper, Correio, which however does not disclose his whereabouts, Manuel outlines a program of social and economic reforms which he intends to introduce when he returns.

The condition of Portugal, he says, is deplorable. Actual despotism has replaced parliamentary self-government and this despotism is controlling the courts of justice, while neglecting the country's commerce and industry and augmenting the taxes to such an extent as to force 120,000 people to emigrate during 1912.

More for Local Fleets

Sydney, N.S.W.—Right Hon. Andrew Fisher, Australian premier, and Mr. F. U. P. Fisher, New Zealand minister of customs, who strongly advocates the naval defence of the Pacific by the Dominions, are of the opinion that Australia's danger is New Zealand's danger and both countries have a common menace. The empire, they say, must be so impregnable that war against any of the Dominions would be too fearsome a thing for any enemy to attempt. They thoroughly endorsed the sentiment expressed by the attorney general, Mr. Hughes, adding it was perfectly clear Canada must take part in patrolling the Pacific.

CANADA AND ITS MAIL

Sir Hugh Allan Expresses Approval of Suggestion

London.—Interviewed recently, Sir Hugh Allan, chairman of the Allan line, expressed his approval of the terms of the new mail contract.

The time has come, he said, when Canada should have more than one direct mail weekly. I also recognize that our line could scarcely expect to keep the business alone. Generally speaking the arrangement is a very equitable one throughout.

Four Villages Fight

Cairo.—Four villages in Upper Egypt, resolving to settle their differences by force, divided into two camps and sallied forth armed to the teeth.

A furious fight ensued in which four were killed and sixty were wounded, many seriously. The police then intervened and the fight was stopped.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON III.—SECOND QUARTER, FOR APRIL 20, 1913

Text of the Lesson, Gen. xxxiii, 1-15
Memory Verses, 10, 11—Golden Text
Eph. iv, 32—Commentary Prepared by Rev D. M. Stearns.

When Laban learned that Jacob had fled he pursued after him in anger, but God came to him in a dream by night and said unto him: Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad (xxxiii, 24, 25), so they had only some sharp words and parted, having erected a heap of stones as a witness that neither would pass that place to do the other harm. Three different names are recorded as having been given to that witness, one of which is much used today (Mizpah), but surely much misunderstood (xxxi, 44-55).

Although no lesson has been assigned from chapter xxxii, the latter part of which is to me most profitable, the committee suggests the perusal of it, and surely no teacher will overlook it. How suggestive is the first verse: And Jacob went on his way and the angels of God met him! Was ever such an unworthy man so wondrously cared for by God? He more than made up to him the loss of wages from Laban. He forbade Laban to harm him, and now, on his way to meet Esau, He sends a host of angels to still further assure him of heavenly protection, yet when he heard that Esau was coming to meet him he was greatly afraid and distressed xxxii, 7. It would have been more honoring to God if he had said: Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. (Ps. xxvii, 3).

His prayer in verses 9 to 12 sounds well, most of it, for he acknowledges God's mercies and pleads His promises, but his plans following his prayer do look a little like his mother's plan of helping God out, though some might consider it showing his faith by his works. Yet the various droves of flocks and herds with which he hoped to appease Esau (verse 20) hardly look like faith working fearlessly.

The incident of xxxii, 24-31, also looks as if there was a great deal of Jacob instead of the Lord in the whole plan. It is with us all, as it was with him, most difficult to put off our shoes, as both Moses and Joshua were told to do, and let the Lord manage all in His own way. Yet the Lord is ever leading us to this that He may bless and use us more and more. This is a much abused story and is made by many to teach that Jacob prevailed by wrestling, but careful attention to the record will show that the Lord wrestled with Jacob to subdue him. He resisted until his thigh was put out of joint, and then in conscious weakness he clung to the Mighty One, saying: I will not let Thee go except Thou bless me; so it was weakness clinging to strength that prevailed. By his strength he had power with God—yes, he had power over the angel and prevailed. (Hos. xii, 3, 4). His conscious weakness was the secret of his power even as the Lord said to Paul: My strength is made perfect in weakness (II Cor. xii, 9).

It is as then that Jacob's name was changed to Israel, a name applied to him personally about fifty times and to his descendants 2,500 times. Jacob called the name of the place 'Peniel,' (face of God), for he realized that he had been face to face with God, Him whom we know as the Son of God, for no man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father. He hath declared Him (John i, 18). He did not tell Jacob His name, but He did say to Manoah the father of Samson: It is wonderful. (Judge xiii, 18). Jacob evidently did not expect that Esau would meet him peacefully and cordially and therefore took all possible care to provide for the saving of his household, putting the most loved ones hindmost and the handmaids and their children foremost, preceded by the various droves, saying: If Esau come to the one company and smite it then the other company which is left shall escape (xxxii, 8; 1, 2).

After all Jacob's fears (for he remembered well his wrong done to his brother twenty years before and the anger from which he had fled) how beautiful it is to read that Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept (xxxiii, 4).

Thus God has many surprises for us when our fears are rebuked and we find forgiveness and peace and joy where the devil had told us we would find only trouble. There is forgiveness with the Lord for all who turn to Him, and He does abundantly pardon.

He, through Joseph, forgave all those cruel brethren. When first he met His disciples after they had all forsaken Him and fled He said: Peace be unto you. Why are ye troubled? (Lu. xxiv, 36, 38). Note carefully all the brotherly kindness of this chapter and think of Him who sticketh closer than a brother. In verses 9, 11, we note that when Esau did not wish to accept Jacob's gifts he said: I have enough, my brother, and when Jacob pressed them upon him he also said: I have enough. The expressions are different, however and in Young's translation the former is: I have abundance, and Jacob said: I have all things. Jacob's word has a larger significance than Esau's.

The difference between a ban-ban fan and the other sort is that the former is used to produce hot air only.

POPULAR YOUNG FARMER TALKS

TELLS WHAT DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS DID FOR HIM

He's Back at Work Again, After Suffering from the Pains, Nervousness and Depression that Only Kidney Disease Can Bring.

Point Alexander, Ont., (Special). — Mr. D. A. Francare, a well-known and popular young farmer, living near here, who has been a sufferer from kidney disease for some time past, is back at work again, and he says, without hesitation, that his cure is due to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was always tired and nervous," Mr. Francare says, in speaking of his illness. "I suffered from backache and neuralgia, and my sleep was broken and unrefreshing. My eyes were puffed and there were dark red circles around them."

"My muscles would cramp. I felt heavy and sleepy afterwards, and I was depressed and low-spirited, while shortness of breath and dizzy spells served to make life yet more miserable for me."

"I was always thirsty; my limbs were heavy; and I had a dragging sensation across the loins."

"My symptoms led me to believe I had kidney disease, and I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have taken eight boxes in all, and I am very grateful for the benefit I have received from them."

The Only Way
Brinks looks downhearted this morning. He has just found out that he must marry.

Marry! Brinks?
Why, how is that?
His father gave him notice this morning that he would no longer support him.

Aesthetic Girl
Maude has broken her engagement with Harry.
For what reason?
She says with her dark blue disposition and his pink hair she is afraid that they would not be able to harmonize the house furnishings.

Smart Landlady
Why?
She says a young man never eats much when he is in love.

Breaking it to Him Gently
Maude, will you marry me?
Well, Charlie, I'll think about it.
What will you think about it?
Some very uncomplimentary things I am afraid.

Because a millionaire subscribes beamingly to a fresh air fund, don't assume that it is safe to leave a railroad or a little unprotected trust lying round in his vicinity overnight.

Particular
How do you like the little girl who has just moved in next door, Mabel?
My mamma doesn't let me play with her.
Don't you like her?
Uh-huh!
Then why doesn't your mother let you play with her?
'Cause she never wants me to play with people's little girls who calls their maids 'hired girls.'

Grating
Life is just one grand sweet song.
Huh!
Well?
That may be, but too blamed many of us can't find the tune for the variations, and the rest are mostly off the key.

Sure Enough
There's no curse like ill health.
Oh, I don't know. It has its uses.
Name one.
It has got several notable persons out of the penitentiary.

TO EASE TIGHT CHEST AND CURE A COLD RUB ON NERVILINE

No Remedy Half so Efficient
"I didn't have to suffer long with a sore, wheezy chest. I had a mighty bad cold—it held me like a vise, but I knew what to do. I took half a teaspoonful of Nerviline in hot water and rubbed my neck and chest every half hour during the evening. You would hardly credit the way Nerviline loosened up that tight chest, enabled me to breathe like a free man, gave me comfort in a few hours."

This is the experience of J. P. Durand, a well known resident of Burton's Corners. In thousands of homes Nerviline is used every day. If a little child has a sick stomach, just a few drops will suffice. If there is any bowel disorder or diarrhoea, only a small dose is required. Inwardly or outwardly, wherever there is pain or inflammation, Nerviline will always relieve quickest and cure surest of any remedy known. Wonderful what a difference good fortune makes to a man. It often enables people who haven't known him for years to recognize him on the street.

Poor Substitutes
He had no aunt to go to for aunt that had a cent.
And so the careless sluggard Off to his 'uncle' went.

What is more pathetic than a middle aged person trying to make himself and others believe he is young?

The man who is anxious to oblige never gets rusty for lack of opportunity to practice his theory.

Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere.

You can never tell what a man is until you have seen him tested by prosperity as well as adversity, and then you can only hazard a guess.

It is easy enough to be good when the devil has nothing really interesting in sight.

No Rest With Asthma. Asthma usually attacks at night, the one time when rest is needed most. Hence the loss of strength, the nervous debility, the loss of flesh and other evils which must be expected unless relief is secured. Fortunately relief is possible. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has proved its merit through years of service. A trial will surely convince you.

The trouble is the politicians don't just understand what would happen to the graft industry if women were permitted to amuse themselves with the little white ballot.

Occasionally we meet a man whose idea of getting even with a fellow he doesn't like consists in kicking his pet dog on the sly.

No Less
How do you feel about woman suffrage?
Well, I am willing that a woman should vote if she wants to, but she can't vote and have my seat in the street car too.

Well, as she seldom gets your seat I suppose that she won't lose anything by voting.

NOTHING BUT THE BEST

QUALITY is the secret of the McLaughlin reputation for carriage building. Quality is the reason for Canada's Largest and Best Equipped Carriage Factory—a factory which can turn out a carefully constructed, and thoroughly inspected, vehicle every ten minutes of each working day in the year.

It would be easy to make a gigantic fortune in a few years by substituting lower grade materials, but such a policy would be nothing more nor less than business suicide, and we prefer to continue along the lines laid down by this company more than 44 years ago.

McLaughlin

Carriages are not the lowest priced carriages on the market, but they are by far the cheapest in the end. Nothing but the best of material, skill and workmanship is good enough for us, and we are satisfied to abide by YOUR decision.

A Constant Change In Body's Tissues

"Our bodies," says Huxley, "may be likened to an eddy in the river, which retains its shape for a while, though every instant each particle of water is changing."

The tissues of the body, composed of millions of tiny cells, are being constantly broken down and wasted away by the process of life, and especially by overwork, worry and disease.

In order to reconstruct these wasted tissues there are necessary such elements as iron, sulphur, magnesia, potash, etc., and when these are not supplied in sufficient quantities in the food we eat it is necessary to aid nature by the use of some restorative preparation.

Most people find Dr. Chase's Nerve Food particularly effective under such circumstances, because it is composed of the very elements of nature which go to form new, rich blood, create new nerve cells and rebuild wasted tissues.

This great food cure is radically different from medicines which are usually employed in the treatment of nervous diseases. For, while they stimulate tired nerves to overexertion or by narcotic influence soothe and deaden them, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food revitalizes wasted nerve cells and so accomplishes lastingly beneficial results.

Such symptoms as sleeplessness, irritability, headache, indigestion, brain tire and feelings of fatigue and discouragement soon disappear when the system is built up by the use of

"Here's a nickel," said a thrifty housewife to a tramp at the door. "Now what are you going to do with it?" "Well, mum," replied the hungry man, "if I buy a touring car, I shan't have enough to pay my chauffeur; if I purchase a steam yacht, there won't be enough left to defray the cost of manning her; so I guess, mum, I'll get a schooner and handle her myself."

AROUND THE TOWN

The Rev. Dr. Spencer of Vancouver will speak at the Baptist church on Sunday next on social reform. Dr. Spencer may be remembered by some of the people of Didsbury as speaking here once before when on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Ferguson, wife of a former pastor of the Presbyterian church, and they will welcome the opportunity of hearing him again. All heartily invited. Special music.

The farmers are digging right in to work and this week has seen a very large acreage of grain sown. While the season is a little late it seems to have come with exceedingly good prospects of being a good one, the extreme heat of Sunday and Monday especially causing the grass to show in pretty good style in places.

On Tuesday evening, April 8th, Elder Aalborg spoke on "The Message of This Age" in the Seventh Day Adventist church to a good attendance of friends, who much appreciated the message spoken. This was the closing address of Elder Aalborg prior to his leaving for the West Indian conference. He will be stationed at Kingston, Jamaica. At the close of the service Elder and Mrs. Aalborg were presented with a small token of respect as a remembrance of their stay in Didsbury, coupled with the earnest wishes of the givers that their efforts in their new field of labor may be abundantly blessed of God. Elder Aalborg suitably replied.

Flour Mills Change Hands

A deal was completed last week whereby the Maple Leaf Flour Mills changed ownership and it is expected that the mills will be in full operation again by the time the next crop is ready. Mr. M. Weber, who still retains his equity in the mills, will be manager. It is understood that a number of Calgary capitalists are behind the new company, which will retain the name of the Maple Leaf Co. This will be good news to the district as well as the town and it is to be hoped that the mills will again get enough business to run to their full capacity.

"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
"Sure, that is what he needs. Sold by all dealers."
